

Being salt and light wherever He leads

May 17, 2020

Grace To, From, and Through

Ruth 2:11-23

Where we live

The world has grace and love, but it is never unconditional.

Where the text lives

An Israelite widow and her daughter in law move back to Israel from Moab to avoid famine.

What is grace?

This story is what the _____ is supposed to be like.

What the text says

The faithful respond to grace shown with more _____.

The faithful put grace in _____.

The faithful receive grace as _____ when it is offered.

Our response

God, help us to be _____ and _____ of your abundant grace to all you place in our lives.

Discussion Questions

Grace To, Through, and From

Ruth 2:11-23

Grace is shown when we are blessed in ways that we do not deserve or are forgiven for offenses we have done against others.

How has God shown grace to you? Be as specific as possible.

How have other Christians showed grace to you? Again, be as specific as possible?

When God or someone else has shown grace to you? Did you thank them?

How have you shown grace to others? Does it matter whether they acknowledged you or not?

Can you think of times that you should have shown grace to others but did not?

How does grace make our church stronger?