How the Faithful Treat Other People

James 2:1-13

Where We Live

Few people _____ others not expecting something in return.

What the text says (vv. 1-7)

The faithful do not value people based on _____, _____,
_____, or _____.

The faithful keep the commandment to “_____ your neighbor as yourself.”

The faithful help others whether they _____ it or not.

Our response

God, help us to see people as you see them and treat them with

_____, _____, and _____.

Discussion questions for this Sunday’s sermon from James 2:1-13

1. Do you know of ways that you value and/or treat people differently? Why do you think that is?
2. How does God want us to value each other?
3. Can you think of a time when you did not treat someone the way that he or she deserved but instead showed mercy? What was the result?
4. Can you think of a time when someone treated you with mercy instead of what you deserved? What was the result?
5. How does valuing and treating each other the way God does help us as church?
