How the Faithful Treat Each Other

James 4:1-12

Where we live

We live between two _____, but one will control us.

Where the text lives

James is helping first generation Christians understand the relationship between faith and works.

What the text says

Following natural desires and the way of the world leads to _____ among Christians.

When we submit to God, our desires do not _____ us.

When we submit to God, we keep His law of _____.

Our response

God, help us _____ ourselves to You so that we _____ one another as You love us.

Discussion questions for Sunday's sermon from James 4:1-12

1. If you have ever faced conflict with Christian brothers or sisters, did you respond out of God's love or your own desires?
2. What do you do when you hear a Christian is "speaking evil" of another Christian? What should you do?
3. How can we help each other have a wise, peaceful community of disciples who still can disagree with one another?
