

More Than a Feeling

The Biblical Call to Christlike Care

Christian ministry should never be reduced to a formula.

God's _____ standard for Christians

Love _____.

- Matthew 22:37
- Matthew 22:39
- 1 John 4:7, 21

If we are truly Christians, love is not a choice. It is who we have been transformed to be in Christ.

Love is not a choice but how we _____ love is a choice.

- Depends on the _____ at that point in time
- Depends on the _____
- Depends on your _____
- Depends on your _____ with the person

God's love in us might be perfect, but our _____ of it are not.

An amateur's understanding of the importance of trauma-informed counseling for Christians

- Increases our understanding of the person/people at that point in time
- Increases our understanding of the circumstances
- Increases our understanding of ourselves, including our trauma, and our ability to help
- Deepens our relationship with the person/people

Trauma-informed counseling will help us _____ God's love better.
