

Waialae Baptist Church: Discipleship Course Phase 2 (NT)

Spring 2024-Fall 2024

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

An overview of effective gospel proclamation surveying the entire New Testament, emphasizing the context of each and framing each within Scripture's metanarrative book by book. Attention is given to the role of discipleship in the local church, emphasizing the practical applications of studying, teaching from Scripture, and developing a teachable heart.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Concluding this course, the student should have the ability to:

1. Demonstrate an understanding of literary content, historical context, and theological purpose of each book of the New Testament
2. Read the New Testament within the framework of the unfolding drama of God's plan of salvation
3. Understand the function and role of teaching Scripture in the local church
4. Mature in discussing the theme and major emphases of each New Testament book
5. Mature in faithful interpretation and exegetical preparation of Scripture
6. Participate in their love for the local church through discipleship
