As Unto The Lord

Ephesians 6:1-9

Where we live

Many Christians struggle with _____ the presence and work of Christ in each other.

Where the text lives

Paul is explaining to the Ephesians how being made _____ in Christ should affect every relationship they have.

What the text says

_____ fellow Christians as new creations, joint heirs, and members of the same body.

Obey and submit to one another out of _____ and _____ for God.

Treat one another as though you are relating to _____.

Love and the expressions of love

The importance of Godly households

Our response

God, help us see and _____ the work of Christ in each other so that our relationships will be stronger and our unity a greater display of Your kingdom so that the world may know.
